

Khalilah Brooks, President

Creator of children's television show Aunty B's House on CBC Kids & CBC Gem, Khalilah has over 18 years of combined experience in the entertainment industry and working as a Child and Youth Worker, lead performer for Famous PEOPLE Players, and working with children and adults with exceptionalities.

In July 2016, Khalilah was awarded the Role Model award from the Member of Parliament, James Maloney, Playing for Keeps Leadership and the Canadian Small Business award. Khalilah also was featured on the OWN network, City TV, Good News Toronto and Rogers Access Granted and now in 2017 you will find her on Bell Fibe and Afro Global Television Network every Saturday morning as the main character on the TV show titled "Story nme with Nanna'.

"I continue to find excitement in embracing life's journey, pursuing my passions, and making a fearless contribution to the lives of our Children and Communities."

- Khalilah Brooks, Founder/Aunty B

BOOK YOUR SHOW TODAY!

647-884-7546

info@bamchildrensentertainment.com
bamchildrensentertainment.com

Let's Get Social!

STAY GROOVY!

BAM CHILDREN'S ENTERTAINMENT

CREATING

CONFIDENCE,

SELF-ESTEEM,

+ PHYSICAL ACTIVITY

THROUGH PUPPETRY AND SONG

WHO IS BAM?

BAM is an innovative company located in Toronto Ontario, Canada who wants to help you make a positive impact on the lives of children.

We are committed to combating issues on a grass roots level and creating a safe space for learning, Your students and children will enjoy the experience of life size puppets and live characters. This relatable method keeps the experience fun, positive and leaves a profound impact.

Here at BAM, we pride our company with highly trained entertainers who will engage your children and students aged 0-12, preparing different shows for each age group example ages 0-6 "Feels Good to Be Kind" and 6-12 "The Little Yellow School Bus" with a program packed full of groovy fun!

We are a team of 3, professionally trained in the performing arts ranging from puppeteers, puppet makers, Bunraku puppetry, costume designers, illustrator, vocalists, and songwriters.

In addition each entertainer is certified in CPR, first aid, and is cleared to work with vulnerable populations.

Our mission is to help you mentor, inspire and heal the hearts of children who are struggling with academics, physical and mental wellness, along with bullying.

MANY INTERACTIVE SHOWS TO CHOOSE FROM!

